MISS GREGORY'S

TALKS 10 YOUNG WOMEN

NUMBER 63

A matter that I think should be of utmost importance in influencing a young woman in deciding upon the profession she shall choose, is what kind of associates she will have in the work. I do not wish in any way to reflect upon the personnel of other lines of activity that are open to women, but I can't help but take pride in the character of the C. & P. Telephone organization.

The telephone operator's prefession appeals to women of refinement and culture, as they are not brought in direct contact with the public; they work without worry or excitement amid congenial surroundings, and the work is mentally stimulating.

During the rest periods, which are allowed every operator at stated intervals, the spacious and comfortable rest rooms, which are fitted up for relaxation and recreation, resemble more than anything else I know of the reception hall of a dormitory at some girls' boarding school. And just as is the case in attending boarding school, we sometimes learn more that sticks to us In after years that sticks to us in after years from the friends we meet than we do in the class rooms, this meet-ing of congenial, refined co-workers is one of the pleasantest features of the work.

When you add up all of the advantages enjoyed by the tele-phone operator—congenial work, phasant surroundings, agreeable associates, rest rooms, lunch rooms, where meals are served at less than cost—I am sure you will agree with me that it is certainly well worth your while to come in and talk it over with me.
